

Becoming a Church of Life Long Learners - John Roberto

The key in the Generations approach is that it builds on the strengths of a parish's faith formation program. The critical component of lifelong learning is that it gathers all generations to learn together and nurture faith through the life-cycle.

The companion CD-ROM includes PowerPoint presentations for each chapter, along with articles by religious education theorists who have been instrumental in developing a new paradigm of lifelong faith formation.